“At Your Mercy Seat”

This year’s conference theme is “At Your Mercy Seat,” which is based on an anthem written by Jeremy Johnson, Paul Marino and Ginger Millermon, and arranged by Lari Goss. Beautifully arranged, this stirring selection draws us to our knees before the mercy seat of God.

Exhibits and Music Stores

Guest Clinician: Dr. Michael Young

Michael is the Worship Minister at Emmanuel Baptist Church, Charleston, and has been leading worship for more than 25 years. He is a graduate of Luther Rice Seminary and is currently attending The Robert Webber Institute of Worship Studies. Michael understands that while musical style is an important part of our experience in worship, music is only part of our proper response to God. God calls us to celebrate His redemption actions in our lives through prayer, fellowship and by proclaiming God’s word.

Michael and his wife Lora have been married for 31 years and have two children. Michael’s other relationship that has been going on longer than his marriage, is with the guitar which he first met in the seventh grade.

Clinician: Dr. John Campbell

Dr. John Campbell has been the Minister of Music at Fifth Avenue Baptist Church in Huntington since August 2013. John earned a B.M. degree in Music Education from Samford University, an M.M. in Choral Music from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and D.M. in Church Music from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

John taught conducting, voice and church music and directed choirs at Georgetown College, Gardner-Webb University, Milligan College, North Greenville College and Longwood College. He served numerous churches as Minister of Music in a part-time capacity and is a published composer and arranger.

He met his wife Terri in the church choir in Champaign, Illinois, while both were in graduate school. Their three children (Laura, Ethan and Rebecca) are all in college or beyond.

Accompanist: Ms. Amy Sinclair

Amy Sinclair is the Director of Church Music at First Presbyterian Church, Parkersburg, where she directs various choirs and serves as organist and pianist. The Sanctuary Choir sings not only for one of the Sunday morning worship services and special services throughout the year, but has presented community concerts in the Mid-Ohio Valley. She has accompanied the acclaimed Parkersburg High School choirs on numerous occasions and is highly respected for her talents. She has visited Parchment Valley on several occasions and the Music and Worship Task Force for this conference is looking forward to working with her.
