General Session
Developing a Strong Pastor/Worship Leader Relationship
Andy Walker and David Hulme, who worked for many years together as worship leader and pastor, share their thoughts on strengthening the relationship between pastor and worship leader.

Worship
The conference begins with a time of worship, led by Andy Walker, Michael Young, and members of the CBC Worship Ministry.

workshops

The Heart of Worship
A look at worship and ways to be more focused in worship, plus a discussion of ways pastors and leaders can facilitate more involvement of the congregation.

Leader: Ellen Walker – Author of "An Audience of One -- Worship for God's People", wife of retired Pastor Don Walker, and member of Mount Vernon Baptist Church.

First Impressions
An opportunity for pastors and leaders to learn how to make welcome teams an invaluable part of the worship ministry of the church. You only get one chance to make a first impression!

Leader: Lisa Williams – Member of the worship team at Clarksburg Baptist Church.

Working with Praise Teams
Rehearsals are for learning new music, working through intros, transitions, and scriptures, as we learn to love and work with one another.

Leader: Michael Young – Experienced worship leader, interim pastor at Main Street Baptist Church, Point Pleasant.

(Vocal) Band of Brothers (and Sisters)
A sharing and caring session for choir directors, including discussion on strategies and techniques for strengthening church choir performances and fellowship.

Leader: Jud Bracey – Choir Director at Philippi Baptist Church and retired from the music faculty of Alderson Broaddus University.

Working with Audio
An opportunity for those who operate audio equipment, whether beginner or seasoned, to learn skills, techniques, and other aspects of this important part of worship.

Leader: Ron Williams – Audio technician at Clarksburg Baptist Church.

Working with Visuals
An opportunity for those who prepare and operate video presentations for worship to gain new skills and techniques, to address questions and review the fundamentals of effective graphic communication in the context of worship.

Leader: Jay Powers – Member of the media team of New Baptist Church, Huntington, and WV State Trooper.
