Preparation of Recipients

Preparation for the Class:

1.) Read and study the scriptures listed at left.

2.) Be ready to share how you were prepared for baptism and your first communion.

3.) Look up and learn the meanings and roots of the words listed for baptism and communion and be ready to discuss their origins in the Bible and tradition.

4.) Be ready to make a case for each of the traditions, both your own baptismal and communion preference from scripture and those of others with which you may not agree. (i.e. "What might they be thinking in doing it this way?")

5.) Be prepared to discuss who may serve communion or do baptisms as well as who may receive -- in your opinion, from scripture and from tradition.
