From the Desk of the President

Something special is in the air!! It is the beginning of new things. It is a new year - a year gifted to each of us by our Father. John the Baptist testified about the gift of Christ in John 1:16: "From his abundance we have all received one gracious blessing after another." Paraphrased from The Message: "We live from God's generous bounty . . . gift after gift after gift." Such a hopeful thought.

The question God's generosity raises to us as we begin our New Year together as AB Women is: What will we do with the abundance and opportunities gifted to us? Our mission statement in American Baptist Women's Ministries is a covenant to God and to each other to: Become and Develop as God's Person; Build God's Faith Community; and Serve God's world.

*Our mission statement can be used in actively planning for our new year:
(some questions taken from Chuck Lawless)*

- ♦ What will my Bible reading plan be?
- ♦ How much time do I schedule daily for study and prayer?
- ♦ How can I love my family better?
- ♦ How will I witness to others about Christ?
- ♦ What sin will I fight the hardest to overcome?
- ♦ Is my giving reflecting my heart for God?
- ♦ What will my missions contribution be - doing/going/giving?
- ♦ How can I daily see God around me and have God work through me?
- ♦ Am I committed to follow God regardless of the sacrifice or cost?
- ♦ Am I planning to study and attend events with my American Baptist sisters?
- ♦ Am I inviting women into our fellowship and building relationships?

A Swahili proverb from East Africa says: "He who wants does not tire; when he tires, he has what he wants." What is it we want? Is it a passion about Christ? Paul tells us that as believers in Jesus, we cannot take a holiday from living out our Christianity. We must press forward with firm purposeful living until we receive our final prize in glory.

This new year is a new beginning. What plans will you make? What will you do with your gifts from our Father?

MEET YOUR NEW OFFICERS FOR 2018

CHURCH AND COMMUNITY COORDINATOR ELECT- MARGARET PRATT

I married my best friend, Anthony Pratt, in 2009. We have three children together: Nathaniel (7), Abigail (5), and Emily (2). We attend First Baptist Church of Racine. I have my Bachelors of Science degree in Nursing from WVU Tech (where I attended BCM and met my husband), and am working on obtaining my MSN-Family Nurse Practitioner degree from Walden University. I am employed by Charleston Area Medical Center-Memorial Division. The American Baptist Women go above and beyond in the giving of their resources and themselves and are so innovative and resourceful. I look forward to serving God through this ministry and to encourage and be encouraged by my sisters in Christ.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH RETREAT COORDINATOR ELECT - KIM PICKRELL

My husband, Doug, and I have been members of Pine Grove Baptist Church in the Parkersburg Association for 24 years. We live in the country and are blessed with three children: Erica, Evan and Cole. I am currently serving the American Baptist Women's Ministries at Pine Grove as the Personal Growth Coordinator and I also serve as the Chair of the Church Decorating Committee. I have served with the youth group, attended Camp Cowen and taught Sunday School. I am a 33-year employee of United Bank and I enjoy crafting, decorating and spending time with family. My passion is the Spiritual Growth Retreat.

LOVE GIFT COORDINATOR - KATHY WINCE

I am from St. Mary's and am a member of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Parkersburg. There I participate in the hand bell choir, the children's team, Debbie Myers' Circle, assist with AWANA and teach the Pre-K class. I am the mother of four sons, one daughter-in-law and grandmother of two granddaughters. I work in the office of Student Financial Assistance at West Virginia University at Parkersburg. In my free time, I enjoy photography, watching my sons play sports and traveling to Florida to visit my granddaughters. One of my favorite Bible verses is I Thessalonians 5:16-18-- "Always be joyful. Never stop praying. Be thankful in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you who belong to Christ Jesus."

MISSION AND SERVICE COORDINATOR ELECT – DEE LALLEMONT

I am a member of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Parkersburg. My husband, Brian, and I are active on the church's Mission Team, work in the AWANA T&T class, attend the Encourager's Sunday School class and enjoy playing with the babies in the nursery. I joined the Leslie Turley Circle in 2014 and I am a student of the Women's Leadership Academy. We have two daughters, Jordan and Kylie Lallemond, who are both students and West Virginia Baptist Scholarship Girls at my alma mater, Marshall University. I work as a Human Resources Specialist at the Department of Treasury and in my spare time I like to walk, camp, kayak, read and watch HGTV. I am passionate about local, stateside and overseas missions. One of my favorite verses is Philippians 4:6-9.

If you look at the words Personal Development, you begin to realize each person will grow at her own rate. What speaks to the mother and wife may not speak to the single woman. There are devotional books and small group studies out there for every woman – single or married, mothers or those without children, also women who work outside the home and those who are working at home. I have personally found the resources listed below to be very thought provoking and worth every minute I have spent studying them. Hopefully one will speak to you.

These studies can be done in circle meetings or a "special" study time for all the women of the church. All three resources can be ordered from Amazon in DVD form or watched on YouTube. Books and study guides are available for each of the resources.

⇒ Follow - Andy Stanley - <https://youtu.be/RcSGXUf2W2o>.

In this eight-part series, Andy Stanley takes us on a journey through the Gospels as he traces Jesus' teachings on what it means to follow. For many, the Christian life feels like a long game of "Jesus Says." Jesus says pray. Jesus says give. Jesus says go to church. But upon further investigation, we discover that Jesus' invitation to His first-century audience was an invitation to relationship. And it began with a simple request - follow me.

⇒ Our God Is Indescribable - Louie Giglio - <https://youtu.be/oNgJhulCrVA>. He helps us attempt to comprehend how big our own galaxy is, not to mention HOW BIG our God is! The heavens are telling the glory of God and their expanse declares the work of His hands. Night after night they remind us of just how small we are and how huge God is. Just a glimpse of one of the billions of visible galaxies He has formed resizes us, shrinking us, and the world we call home, to seeming insignificance in an instant. But as tiny as we may seem, the God who knows every star by name also knows yours and mine. And in the most stunning rescue imaginable, God sent His Son to this spinning planet we call home--the Creator reconnecting us to Himself with life that never ends.

⇒ Uninvited - Lysa TerKeurst - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=e9UQL8wzdPA>. The enemy wants us to feel rejected . . . left out, lonely and less than. When we allow him to speak lies through our rejection, he pickpockets our purpose, cripples our courage, dismantles our dreams and blinds us to the beauty of Christ's powerful love. Lysa shares her own deeply personal experiences with rejection - from the incredibly painful childhood abandonment by her father to the perceived judgment of the perfectly toned woman one elliptical over. Lysa helps readers to release the desire to fall apart or control the actions of others by embracing God-honoring ways to process their hurt; overcome the two core fears that feed our insecurities by understanding the secret of belonging; and stop feeling left out and start believing that "set apart" does not mean "set aside."

Scholarships

Every year at this time I put the same information in "Seasons" and almost every year a girl calls me for a Scholarship application after March 1st and I have to say "You are too late." Please, if you have young ladies in your church that will be graduating this year - tell them about the American Baptist Women's Ministries Scholarship/Loan. The requirements to apply are as follows:

She must have been an active member of a WVBC church for a year; plans to attend a West Virginia school; have a GPA of 2.50; and have need of finances.

Application forms must be requested by the applicant, either by telephone or e-mail, from Scholarship Coordinator Jane Mullen (information listed below). The deadline for applying is March 1, 2018 – this means applications must be in the hands of Coordinator Jane Mullen on that date.

WEST VIRGINIA BAPTIST CONVENTION 2018 THEME "BRIDGES OF HOPE"

The quaint footbridge leading to the church in this photo exemplifies my belief in God's church – not simply the structure, but the people. In Matthew 16:15-18 Jesus speaks to his disciples -- "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by flesh and blood, but by my Father in heaven. And I tell you that you are Peter and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it." God's church is, and always has been a bridge of hope for millions of people. As we serve others, we serve God. Matthew 25:40 "The King will reply, truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." As American Baptist Women, we are part of this bridge of hope. May the programs we already have in place continue to thrive and may we pray that God will reveal new and different ways for us to provide a "bridge of hope" to others.

PLEASE JOIN US
APRIL 13 - 15, 2018
“BETTER TOGETHER”

We are thrilled to be having the third annual Women's Camp at the West Virginia Baptist Camp at Cowen! We would love to welcome any woman 18 years and older to join us for Women's Camp 2018.

The weekend is focused on uniting generations of women with ages ranging from 18 to 95. From college-aged girls washing the feet of wiser women at spa night, to small groups praying together and sharing each others burdens, it has been a joy to see such an incredible group of ladies attend each year and grow in the Lord and with each other.

This year there will be fun, fellowship and Bible study for all including a snack swap, special movie night, interest groups with offerings including crocheting, hand lettering, missions, and more. This year's "Women in Mission's" session will feature some special guests, who you'll just have to come to meet!

This year our focus is going to be, “Better Together,” with our theme Scripture coming from Ephesians 4. I encourage you to read that Scripture and think about how we as women can better work together to be the hands and feet of Jesus. I think often times we get caught up in competition with other women and what we need to do is work together for the glory of the Father, because we are Better Together.

We pray you join us for the journey at Women's Camp 2018 as we grow, learn and share on being Better Together.

Connect, Make Friends and Pray!

As leaders, one of the “unwritten” rules is to be on the lookout for new ideas. The September 2017 issue of Leader’s Reader, published by the national board of American Baptist Women’s Ministries, shared this idea that is worthy of your consideration.

Relationships matter! The women of one church recently cultivated relationships when they started something they call “3-4-1”: three women, four months, one purpose. It’s simple. Three women connect regularly for four months with the singular purpose of supporting each other, growing in faith and praying for one another.

Women in the congregation were invited to sign up for 3-4-1, providing their contact information. They were then matched up into triads, and effort was made to connect people who didn’t know one another (unless they had specifically asked to be paired with friends whose names they provided). Preference was given to cross-generational pairings. Women in the triads were notified by email, so they instantly had one another’s contact information. Each triad met face to face within the first month to get acquainted and share prayer concerns. They then agreed to check in with one another via email by a pre-arranged weekly deadline. They also meet face-to-face once a month, for four months.

A few simple ground rules were offered: confidentiality, resisting advice giving, and balancing out the sharing so that no one person dominated the conversation. With that, the groups were off and running. If you are looking for something simple and easy to connect women, try 3-4-1. Call it whatever you want, but just make it possible for women to connect, make friends and pray!

This short-term prayer focus will allow women from your church to know each other better, lean on each other and build strong relationships. When creating small prayer groups mix circle women with women not in AB Women’s Ministries. Building relationships in these small groups may just bring new members into your women’s group.

2018 MISSION OUTREACH PROJECT (MOP)

GOAL: $6,000

Trees from Zechariah 3 for South Africa

It is anticipated that this project will create sustainable nursery locations employing local people and producing 10,000 grafted fruit, nut and Chaya trees annually for the local sale and distribution. The trees will beautify urban slums and provide avocados, mangos, lemons, Macadamia nuts and Chaya leaves to combat hunger and malnutrition.

The money contributed to this project will help train, equip and supply people to run local fruit and nut tree grafting nurseries for local profit, nutrition, environment improvement and sustainability in South Africa

The project will be managed by American Baptist International Ministries Medical Missionaries Drs. Rick and Anita Gutierrez.

Session #8 – Kathy Hudson, Leader
Saturday, February 3, 2018
Parchment Valley Conference Center
as part of the WVBC's 2018 Church Officers' Training Event

For Session #8 you must register through the West Virginia Baptist Convention. A registration blank is in the December/January issue of the West Virginia Baptist and on line at: www.wvbc.org.

MORNING SESSION - SERVANTHOOD

Using scripture, we will explore Christ's attitude and examples of servanthood. Through the women's ministries, we are asked to serve like Christ in a world that is broken. Being a servant is one of the qualities of being a good leader. Are we truly WALKING the same road Jesus did to serve others? Matthew 20:28 (NKJV)

AFTERNOON SESSION - SERVING WITH HEART

Do you expect great things from God? Do you attempt great things for God? Our love for God is expressed in our love for others. God wants to use us, but we must listen, pray and obey. God has endowed women with CREATIVITY to show His love in our homes, our communities and around the world. Never underestimate a roomful of women sharing and exploring resources and experiences to promote the cause of Christ. Galatians 6:9-10 (NKJV)

**Upcoming Session #9 will be held on June 2, 2018, at Women's Conference

UPDATE - The Sunny Day Leadership and Activity Center has, at its heart, a BIG vision to increase the ministry of West Virginia Baptist Camp at Cowen in three ways: 1. To the campers as adding the gym will allow larger group use and help during bad weather; 2. To the community as we look to impact Webster County by partnering and developing programs that impact the great needs of the surrounding area; 3. To the West Virginia Baptist Convention as we develop leadership for tomorrow as we better equip leaders today.

This is a BIG project with a BIG vision that comes with a BIG price tag with the whole project totaling around 1.5 million. We are so thankful for the West Virginia American Baptist Women as you have jumped on board to raise more than $12,000 in support! Thank you! You can read more about the project and progress at <http://www.cowencampaign.org>. We celebrate that we have raised more than $200,000 so far! In October we launched the Sunny Day building bank campaign. We will gather on April 21st at Emmanuel Baptist Church, Charleston for a block party as we celebrate the 75th anniversary of ministry at Camp Cowen and the fundraising efforts for this project.

Be Sunny. Be Devoted. Be a Giver.

COMMUNICATIONS

My mother could always communicate her feelings with her big, brown eyes! My father could just look a certain way, and I knew I hadn't done the right thing. My expressions came through pouting and sitting on the couch, and refusing to talk to anyone! Remember those days, ladies?

Now that I am an adult, I still communicate through facial expressions of: anger, fear, joy, sadness, surprise. Now that I am an adult, I don't sit on the couch and sulk, but I still express by yawning, finger tapping, shoulder shrug, crossing my arms or just by ignoring.

Let's remember some important points in communicating:

- Be positive and upbeat with your facial expressions
- Use words of compassion and encouragement

I have a dear friend who just completed her last chemo treatment. Whenever I called to encourage her, I was the one receiving the blessing! In such adversity, she was positive, faithful in spirit. I want to be like her! At your next women's meeting, circle gathering, or just with friends try the following styles of communication:

- * Listening
- * Listening with your eyes as well as your ears
- * Showing enthusiasm to be with them
- * Having a smile ready
- * Hugging is acceptable

If a lady in your gathering is missing due to illness or a personal situation, why don't you lift her up by doing the following –and more than one time!

- ♦ Send her a note of encouragement by email or by mail
- ♦ Phone calls are great
- ♦ Prayers
- ♦ Drop off some cookies or mail a care package

“Blessed are they who have the gift of making friends, for it is one of God's best gifts. It involves many things, above all, the power of going out of one's self and appreciating whatever is noble and loving in another.” Written by Thomas Hughes

May we communicate as written in Hebrews 13:5 –“I will never leave you nor forsake you.”

Purpose of AB Women's Ministries

*In commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and to the mission of the church, and through the enabling of the Holy Spirit, American Baptist
Women's Ministries provides opportunities for each woman to:*

- become and develop
as God's person,
- build God's faith
community and
- serve God's world.
