CONTINUING OUR LEGACY

"The greatest legacy that one can pass on is not money or other material things accumulated in one's life, but rather a legacy of character and faith."

- Billy Graham

As a West Virginia Baptist Convention family, we have a rich legacy! In our 155th year, we celebrate all that God has accomplished through us—the building of camp in Cowen, the construction of a leadership center at Parchment Valley, the establishment of the School of Christian Studies, and more! But we also look to the future, asking God how He might want to use us to reach the next generation. This year's emphases include:

- Church planting and revitalization
- A new mentoring program for pastors
- Leadership development among young adults, providing them with internships in our churches and with our partners around the world
- Resourcing churches with relevant training and material for today's opportunities and challenges
- Discipleship for all generations—children to senior adults
- Continuing to expand opportunities to reach the nations with the gospel

One of the greatest ways to continue this legacy is through the Mountain State Mission Offering. By supporting this offering, not only are you investing in the ministries that were passed down to us, but you are also investing in the ministries that we are passing on to the next generation. As we seek to reach all generations for Jesus Christ, both here and abroad, the question is:
