

Children's Fall Rally

Saturday, November 7
at Home or at your Church

Jesus challenged the status quo. From the moment He arrived on the scene. He made statement after statement that made people stop in their tracks. In fact, His statements made all the people around Him stop and say the modern-day equivalent to, "Say Whaaaat?"

Your children will learn about some of the most challenging statements and teachings of Jesus. From learning to store up treasures in Heaven to learning to live without worry, your kids will be challenged to get rid of the "old" way of thinking and embrace

Due to the challenges and restrictions created by COVID-19, the Children's Fall Rally will be a virtual event, the "Children's Fall Rally at Home or at Church." You can participate at your church inviting all your children to attend, or you can participate at home with your whole family.

The Children's Fall Rally at Home or at Church will allow a church or an individual family to register for $10. The registration fee will give you access to the links to four virtual lessons, activities, and supply list.

T-shirts will be available for $10 each, but they must be pre-ordered, pre-paid and post-marked by October 9th. The t-shirts will be mailed to the address on the registration form.

You may register using this form or register online at wvbc.org. The email that you
